Marvel Knights The Inhumans Paul

The Inhumans are a fascinating Marvel concept linked to Bronze Age Fantastic Four, so the revival in the late 1990s and aughts is by no small part thanks to the book by Paul Jenkins. The Inhumans get compared to the X-men a lot as they are super beings from genetic mutations, but they have the arc of classical tragedy, not social metaphor.

Amazon.com: Inhumans by Paul Jenkins & Jae Lee ...

Inhumans by Paul Jenkins covers a group that I don't often run into-the Inhumans on Attilan. Led by their silent king, Black Bolt (his whisper can level mountains)-the Inhumans thrive by the mutations caused by the Terrigen Mists. It helps them to unlock their genetic code and become something else. But it turns out all is not well in Inhuman society.

The Inhumans by Paul Jenkins - Goodreads

The Marvel Knights line continues to amaze readers with its innovative storylines and amazing art. Combining the always intriguing plot lines of Paul Jenkins with the visually arresting artwork of Jae Lee was pure brilliance on the part of Marvel. Daringly resurrecting a team of forgotten heroes like the Inhumans only adds to the mix.
